Rules Made For Liquor Shipments.

Rules governing the shipment of rail road to comply with the restrictions of the Webb law were issued Friday by D. M. Goodwyn, general freight agent, and C. B. Compton, freight traffic manager, and all agents of the road are instructed relative to the provision of the bill. The pamphlet says the road will transport shipments of "spirited, vinous, malted, fermented or other intoxicating liquors of any kind" only to points on its lines where local or State laws do not prohibit such shipment.

The pamphlet is in three sections, the first relating to rules applicable on interstate shipments; the second to State laws in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Ohio, Tennessee and Virginia, and the third to restrictions regarding handling at points beyond L. and N. rails in Arkansas, Kentucky, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma and South Carolina.

According to the tariff the only States through which the road operates in which there are no statutes prohibiting the transportation of intoxicants are Illinois, Louisiana, Missouri, Ohio and Tennessee. The points in Kentucky named in the pamphlet where local option laws do not exist and to which shipments of intoxicants can be made are:

Ashland, Bank Lick, Bardonia, Boston, Bourbon, Bowling Green, Brent, Carrollton, Catlettsburg, Central City, Clay City, Coon Hollow, Covington, Dayton, Deatsville, Erlanger, Early Times, Frankfort, Fredonia, Getsemane, Greasy, Henderson, Highland Park, Hopkinsville, Latonia, Lawrenceburg, Lebanon, Lexington, Louisville, Ludlow, Mayville, Melbourne, Middlesboro, Mt. Sterling, New Haven, New Hope, Newport, Nicholasville, Owensboro, Paducah, Paris, Red House, Ross, St. Matthews, Samuels, Shelbyville, Shearer, Silver Creek, Somerset, Spring Lake, Tejava, Tyrone, Varilla and Winchester.

DEATHS.

—Mr. George William Taylor, aged 74 years, died Thursday night at 10 o'clock at his residence on South Main street. He had been ill for about two years, being a victim of Bright's disease and other complications. Mr. Taylor is survived by his wife, one daughter, Miss Lillian E. Taylor, and two sons, William Robert Taylor and Edwin Clay Taylor. He was a carpenter by trade, and a very honest, upright citizen. The burial took place at 12 o'clock Sunday in the Carlisle cemetery. Mr. Taylor was a member of the Masonic fraternity, and the Masons conducted the services at the grave.

The remains were taken to Carlisle Sunday, where they were interred in the Carlisle cemetery with the Masonic service at the grave. A large number of the members of the local lodge attended the funeral.

Winners in Prize Essay Contest.

On March 20 a lecture entitled "The Dawn of Plenty," was delivered at the Paris Public School Auditorium by Mr. Frank Stockdale, representing the International Harvester Company.

It was announced prior to the lecture that all of the High School pupils who attended would be eligible to compete for prizes to be awarded by the International Harvester Company. The prizes, two in number, were to be given for the best and the second best paper, limited to 200 words, on the subject "What Cheap Bread Has Done for the World."

There were twenty-seven contestants. The papers were written in school under the surveillance of Miss Josie Alexander, teacher of Literature in the High School. The essays were marked by Miss Alexander for identification by a number only. A list of the names of the contestants, each marked with a number corresponding to the number on his or her production, was placed in a sealed envelope, which was not opened until the prize-winners were decided upon.

The judges, who were selected by the Harvester Company, were Mr. D. T. Wilson, Superintendent Chapman and the editor of the Kentuckian-Citizen.

In making the awards the choice finally sifted to Numbers 19 and 28, with first choice in dispute. Superintendent Chapman contended for No. 19 and Mr. Wilson was equally as firm for No. 28 as first choice. The deciding vote was left to the editor who decided in favor of No. 28.

The awards were then made as follows:

To No. 28, the first prize, $5.00 in cash. The author of this paper was Miss Beatrice Chapman, a student of the High School.

To No. 19, the second prize, $2.00 in cash. The author of this paper was Mr. Dennis Snapp, a student of the High School.

Mr. Cross to Lecture in Paris.

Mr. Albert Holmes Cross, of Cleveland, Ohio, will visit Paris, on Wednesday, April 23, under the auspices of the Paris Epworth League, and will deliver two of his delightful lectures.

In the morning, at 8:30 o'clock, he will give his brief High School lecture at the regular chapel services at the Public School Auditorium.

At 7:45 p. m., he will lecture at the Methodist church. The public invited.

These lectures are free, no admission being charged. All the expense is being borne by the local Epworth League. A free-will offering will be accepted.

Mr. Cross' lectures and addresses are all given in a peculiar, all his own, happy style—with good cheer and helpfulness running through them. He isn't the least bit "cross." Without trying to be, he is often humorous. Underneath the humor however, is a deep seriousness.

His lectures are not temperance addresses, but are regular popular lectures, of the most unique now being given. They are studies of why men fail in life and the people are shown how they may break the bonds which have held backward and downward from the larger, truer, more noble life God would have men lead. These lectures are something different. The following out of his lectures would transform homes, churches, schools, factories and farms. They are a challenge to nobility of life.

The ideal carriage horse is the American trotting bred horse, with size, speed, courage, and the true trotting gait, with plenty of knee and hook action. In addition he must have a clean cut head and neck, style and finish, plenty of substance without coarseness.

Recognizing the demand for this class of horses, I selected Taylor Simmons 23489, a young horse which fills all the requirements of the typical carriage horse. If the theory that "like begets like" be true, he will produce horses of this type when mated with good mares. Through his veins flow the blood of the greatest trotting families. He traces twice to George Wilkes and five times to Mambrino Chief II. This is backed by the stout thoroughbred blood of Boston.

A few of the fancy priced ones sired by Taylor Simmons: Phendara, winner in the walk-trot class at the Blue Grass Fair in 1907, Louisville Horse Show and in the East, sold by Col. C. L. Bailey for $2,500; Alleen Powers, sold to Godfrey Priest, of New York, for $1,000; Little Nath, sold for $500 to Eastern parties. His get are always commanding the price that pay a man to raise good stock.

Tearing Down Old Baptist Church Building.

The work of razing the old Baptist church building at the corner of Main and Sixth streets, was begun yesterday, when workmen commenced removing the tin roofing. The material in the building was purchased by Dr. D. S. Henry, who will have the site cleared.

The property is owned by the firm of S. H. Kress & Co., operating numerous five and ten cent stores throughout the country, and it is planned to erect on the site a handsome white pressed brick building that will prove quite an addition to that section of the city.

The building will be three stories in height, and the lower floor will be divided into two store rooms, the larger about forty-six feet while the smaller will be about twenty feet in width. The large room will be occupied by the firm, in which it will conduct a five and ten cent store, while the remaining room will be leased and the upper floors divided into office suites.

Mr. Lee I. Beall, local representative of the firm, gave out the information some time ago that the company would soon begin the erection of a building this spring, and as soon as the site is cleared work on the foundations will begin.

MATRIMONIAL.

LIVINGSTON-FREIL.

The marriage of Miss Marie Livingston to Mr. Harry Freil occurred this morning at six o'clock at the Church of the Annunciation, Rev. Father Eugene DeBruyn being the officiating clergyman.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends witnessing the ceremony.

Miss Livingston, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Livingston, residing on Fifteenth street, is a handsome and attractive young woman, with a host of admiring friends.

Mr. Freil is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Freil, whose home is in Renova, Pa. He is a member of a prominent family and holds a clerical position with the Pennsylvania railroad in that city.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip and will go to Renova, Pa., where they will reside.

Woman in New Sphere.

Oporto is the only city in Portugal that can boast of having a feminine health inspector, a woman having been appointed by the government to a subinspectorship in the department of public health. Another striking appointment by the government comes with the selection of a well-known woman scholar to a professorship in ordinary at the Universities of Coimbra and Lisbon. The lady professor in question has been appointed to fill the chair in Germanic philosophy.

Library Without Light.

The great national library of France, the Bibliotheque Nationale, in Paris, has a splendid site, 44 miles of shelves and 3,000,000 volumes to fill them, but in the winter that vast store of learning and intellectual delight is nearly useless, because the library has no artificial light, and its books are issued to readers and students only in the middle of the short days.

Valuable Find Came Too Late.

The irony of fate was exemplified at Manhattan, Cal., recently. After working incessantly and alone for two years in a mine in which none but he had faith, a man named Hubley was killed by a cave of rocks and debris, estimated as weighing forty tons. The same fall of earth that crushed out his life uncovered the very ore body he had been seeking with such dogged persistence. The ore is some of the richest ever discovered in the district.

Zero in Vacuums.

A scientific worker recently succeeded in exhausting a vessel to a pressure of two ten millionths of a millimeter of mercury (four one thousand millionths of a pound per square inch), which is the highest vacuum ever attained experimentally. At this pressure one cubic millimeter of gas would still contain about eight and a half-millionth molecules—a number equal to nearly twice the population of New York City.

Inference Obvious.

Reggie (over on a visit)—"Do you know, old chap, I think that vulgar fellow over there insulted me?" American Friend—"You think so? What did he say?" Reggie—"Why, he suggested in a very rude manner that when I die I bequeath my head to a collar-button factory."

Plan Fifty Mile Road.

A delegation of about thirty representative citizens of Fleming, Bath and Montgomery counties, headed by Editor Will, of Flemingsburg, and Judge McKee, of Mt. Sterling, visited Maysville last week and addressed the Mason Fiscal Court in regard to securing fifty miles of road to be built by the United States Government in Kentucky. They call themselves a good roads committee, and are trying to have the Government build a road between Maysville and Mt. Sterling.

The committee was assured that Mason county would do her part. It was agreed to lay these counties' claims before Gov. McCreary for approval.

Notice to Dairymen.

It is the order of the City Board of Health, that owners of cows, who are furnishing milk to the trade, must have their herds examined, according to the State law and apply to the Secretary of the Board for a certificate, licensing the sale of their products. The law is strict in this matter. Comply and save trouble.

Egg Resembles Chicken.

The Richmond Climax says: "Mr. Thomas J. Tribble brought to the office yesterday a soft-shell egg which very much resembled a young chicken. It is about the size of one and a hard substance at one end and reminds one very much of a chick's head."

Removal Notice.

Owners of hogs and pigs are requested by the Board of Health to have them removed from the city at once. Don't move those animals from pen to pen, or cellar to cellar, but take them out of town. This means you, if you are the owner of such property. All look alike to this Board.

Jim Deaton Trial Postponed.

The trial of the case of Jim Deaton, accused of conspiracy to murder former Sheriff Ed. Callahan, to be held at Winchester, has been postponed from April 2, the date originally set by Judge J. M. Benton and witnesses and others interested in Breathitt and Perry counties were notified that they would be given sufficient notice as to the new date for the trial. The postponement of the case was ordered by the court on a statement by attorneys for the defense that they could not have their case ready by April 28.

Lest You Forget.

Your home newspaper heralded to the world your birth. It told of your entry into school. Mentioned your birthday party when you were sweet sixteen. Applauded your graduation from the high school, started you into college, and when you returned mentioned the first job you secured. Told of your marriage to the sweetest girl in town and also mentioned the advent, or event, of your first-born. Told of the visits of papa and ma, sympathized with you in your sorrow, laughed with you in your joy, and when you die it will do its best to get you through the pearly gates at only two a year.

Notice to the Public.

Just a casual glance at the stable, back yards, etc., indicate the immediate necessity of a general clean up. We are not going to run these notices during the entire year. Do what you know to be right and there will be no trouble, otherwise—well you are taking the chance.

Suit Over Grass Seed.

The suit of D. S. Gay and others against Ford Brent was called in the Clark Circuit Court Friday morning, and both sides answered ready. The suit is over a car load of blue grass seed alleged to have been sold to D. S. Gay, J. S. Wilson and Spears & Son in 1906 by Ford Brent, of Paris. Mr. Brent avers that he sold the seed to C. E. Pruney, of St. Louis, and declined to deliver the seed to Mr. Gay and his associates, when notified to do so by Mr. Pruney. His defense is that Gay and his associates had entered into an "illegal comb" for the purpose of controlling the bluegrass seed market in the year 1906, such a combination being in restraint of trade and in violation of the State and Federal laws. He maintains that he should not answer in damages because the price fixed by the combination were "fictions and not the real value of the seed. The price at which the seed was sold by Mr. Brent was $1.30 a bushel, and the plaintiffs claim that the seed advanced by the time for delivery 38 cents a bushel.
